Dear Families and Friends,

Our year is winding to a fulfilling close. We have had stupendous Spring Projects full of information, creativity and originality. We have enjoyed another classical play from Upper Elementary Trebelmakers, a musical montage of Beethoven's work, complete with costumes, wigs, solos and choruses.

We look forward to a jolly Summer Art Camp this year (filling up!) featuring a round of Abstract Expressionism and a week of sculptural design.

We have some important thank yous to hand out: Forever thanks to our amazing teaching staff. They give us endless dedication, innovation and care of the students. They are truly Renaissance women, teaching everything from algebra to advanced math, to Parts of the Eye, to the History of Money. Thank you, teachers.

A huge thank you to Rosemary in the office: Like the puppeteer of a giant marionette, she keeps everything coordinated and working. And we would collapse in a heap without her.

And finally, many thanks to you, the parents. For trusting us with your children, for supporting our values and for the appreciation you have offered our beautiful classrooms.
